A LETTER FROM OUR FOUNDER & CEO

NATASHA NASCIMENTO

Dear Friends,

When I was a little girl, I just loved stories that made the impossible feel possible.

The kind where the smallest person in the room could change everything (hello, Matilda). Where something as ordinary as a peach could become the doorway to an extraordinary world (thank you, James). Where, against all odds, there was still a golden ticket with someone's name on it.

I believed in that kind of magic then and 16 years into this work, I believe in it even more now!

Not the kind made of chocolate rivers and everlasting gobstoppers, but the kind I have had the privilege of witnessing in children who have every reason to stop believing there is something beautiful waiting for them and somehow, still do.

Children who still dream. Still laugh until their stomachs hurt. Still make plans for lives they haven't lived yet. Still dare to ask, "What if?"

What if I graduate? What if I travel the world someday? What if I can become a nurse, an artist, a mother, a teacher? What if my story becomes something more than what happened to me?

That question is why we are here. At Redefining Refuge, we have never believed that a child's worst chapter should get to write their ending. We believe in what comes next. In the unopened doors. In the audacious, stubborn, sometimes completely unreasonable belief that there is more.

More than what was taken. More than what was done. More than what statistics predict. More than anyone has dared to imagine for them yet. The possibility of what comes next.

Sixteen years ago, Redefining Refuge began with an idea that probably sounded impossible. Tonight, I am standing in a room filled with proof that impossible things happen when enough people refuse to believe they are impossible.

You are that proof.

So tonight, dream bigger with us. Believe bigger with us. Imagine a future for these children so beautiful, so full, and so wildly different from where their stories began that they might not even recognize the lives waiting for them.

And then help us build it, just like you always have! Because perhaps the greatest gift we can give a child isn't a golden ticket at all. It's making sure they grow up believing there is still a whole world waiting on the other side of the gates.

With all my love and gratitude,

Natasha Nascimento

A LETTER FROM OUR BOARD PRESIDENT

JEN GUDENKAUF

Dear Tampa Community,

Every year when I sit down to write this letter, I think about how far Redefining Refuge has come, and how much of that progress has been made possible by this community. You have donated, volunteered, talked about our mission, brought others into the conversation, and answered the call over and over again.

Tonight we are celebrating The Golden Ticket, and I can't help but think about what a "golden ticket" really represents: a door opening that wasn't open before. A new possibility. A reason to hope. A chance.

For the kids we serve, those chances matter!

They deserve the chance to feel safe. To be surrounded by people who believe them and believe in them. To discover what they are good at. To dream about what comes next. And, maybe most importantly, to have people in their corner who refuse to give up on them.

That is who Redefining Refuge and this community continue to be for them.

I'm incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together, but there is still so much more to do. As our work grows, so will the need for your involvement, your voice, and your continued support. Whether you have supported us year after year or tonight is your first introduction to Redefining Refuge, I hope you'll stay with us for what comes next.

But tonight, have some fun! Enjoy the surprises, raise a glass, bid on something you probably don't need, and celebrate what we have accomplished together.

On behalf of our Board of Directors, Natasha and her incredible team, and most importantly, the kids we are privileged to serve, thank you for being here, for standing with us, and for continuing to believe in our kids and this work.

Have an incredible evening!

WHAT IN THE WONKA?

Some things are better when shared over wine.

Some call for dinner and dressing up fine.

Some are for two. Some are better with friends.

And one little treasure sparkles long after the evening ends.

There are tables to gather around, glasses to raise,

A touch of indulgence for ordinary days.

A little bit of glamour, a little delight,

And more than a few reasons to make plans for the night.

Gentlemen, take note...you should absolutely play.

Win this for her and become Husband of the Day.

What waits inside is anyone's guess...

Perhaps something sparkling, perhaps something sweet.

But one thing is certain, should this box become yours:

More than $5,500 in surprises are waiting behind its doors.

So how much would you wager on something unseen?

On dinners and diamonds and everything between?

Value: $5,500+ | $250 per chance to win

IV. The Golden Trunk

Some Golden Tickets lead somewhere fabulous.

Forget the chocolate, this Golden Ticket comes with a little more luxury.

One lucky guest will take home a $1,000 Louis Vuitton gift card, ready to turn into the iconic bag, timeless accessory, or fabulous little something you've been eyeing.

No factory tour required. No Oompa Loompa negotiations. Just a very good reason to take your chances.

But remember one very important Wonka rule:

Because when it comes to Louis Vuitton, even Mr. Wonka wouldn't hold the prize.

Adele Sandra Bennett

2/5/1945 - 10/19/2021

Adele was born in Lake Placid, NY ... the only child of Mortimer Bennett and Regina Hazen Bennett. She and her family moved to the Tampa Bay area in 1957. She graduated from Largo High School in 1962 and continued her education at St. Petersburg College and the University of South Florida attaining a Bachelor's in Accounting.

She was employed with the University of South Florida for many years as an Associate Controller in Finance and Accounting. Afterwards, Adele worked at Moffitt Cancer Center as Director of Finance until her retirement. Sadly, Adele lost her battle to pancreatic cancer on October 19, 2021.

Adele lived a life filled with dear friends and family and she will be missed by many. She was simply fun, genuine, loving, and exciting. She will always be remembered for her charisma and endearing smile which could light up a room.

It was Adele's wish that upon her passing she would leave a legacy of love in giving throughout the Tampa Bay area. She did so by leaving the bulk of her estate to many charities across the region. We are fortunate to have been included in Adele's estate.

THANK YOU ADELE FOR THE LEGACY OF LOVE YOU LEAVE BEHIND !!!
